Z&D Associate Rebecca Ahdoot Named to New York's Judicial Screening Committee, King's County

(New York – February 28, 2019) – Rebecca Ahdoot, an associate at construction law firm Zetlin & De Chiara LLP, has been selected on behalf of the Iranian American Bar Association to serve on New York's Judicial Screening Committee, King's County for 2019.

The Committee evaluates the qualifications of candidates for appointment or designation to judicial office throughout New York State, and recommends to the governor those candidates who are highly qualified to hold judicial office.

Ms. Ahdoot, a staunch advocate of diversity in the legal field, was a board member of the Iranian American Bar Association from 2006 to 2018, and previously held the title of Vice President.

At Zetlin & De Chiara, she concentrates her practice on construction-related litigation representing the interests of design professionals, owners, and contractors. She has also performed advisory services related to commercial and construction matters.
