Update

October 24
Michael Zetlin, Co-Founding Partner, Peter Mencher, Managing Partner, and Deena M. Crimaldi, Partner, addressed critical issues for engineering firms at the ACECNJ Fall Conference. Mr. Mencher, Co-Founding Partner, spoke on similar themes to attendees at the national Healthcare Projects Construction Approaches and Best Practices for Qualitative Issues. How to Avoid Delays, Cost Overruns and Management Conference in Austin, Texas. He provided insights on selecting a method for projects. Panelists included: Ken Fanelli, Peter Mulcahey, Kevin Mannle, and Joseph Chin. The panelists explored construction methods, delivery systems and the variables that should be considered.

October 31
Michael Zetlin, Co-Founding Partner, moderated a panel at the SMPS to discuss Risky Business—What firms in the High-Risk to Know to Position their Marketing Leaders Need and demand, infrastructure, classes are hot, of/ice supply, key policy initiatives and why.

November 2
Michael Zetlin, Co-Founding Partner, will join a panel at the New York Building Congress to moderate a spirited discussion on HOW TO FOLLOW BEST PRACTICES. The panelists include: Carlo Scissura, Esq., Jay Badame, Larry Roman, Sabrina L. Kanner, TC Williams, and Larry Silverstein.

November 28
Sabrina L. Kanner, Special Counsel, explains the importance of document follow best practices. Mr. Kanner’s article, Who’s to Blame? When Building Materials Fail, was featured in the June 2018 edition of Construction Draw. The panelists included: Seth Pinsky, Queens Deputy Borough President, Jeffrey Mandel, RXR Realty, Jake Elghanayan, TF Cornerstone, Melva Miller, Tishman Speyer, and Joseph Dennis, Dewberry. AECOM Tishman. Sabrina L. Kanner, Special Counsel, was profiled as one of seven of the legal world’s most powerful, most connected and most exciting players.

November 29
Deena M. Crimaldi and Michael Zetlin, Co-Founding Partner, addressed critical issues for engineering firms at the ACECNJ Fall Conference. Mr. Zetlin, Co-Founding Partner, spoke on similar themes to attendees at the national Healthcare Projects Construction Approaches and Best Practices for Qualitative Issues. How to Avoid Delays, Cost Overruns and Management Conference in Austin, Texas. He provided insights on selecting a method for projects. Panelists included: Ken Fanelli, Peter Mulcahey, Kevin Mannle, and Joseph Chin. The panelists explored construction methods, delivery systems and the variables that should be considered.

Upcoming Events

October 24
Michael Zetlin
Michael Zetlin, Co-Founding Partner, and Michael De Chiara, Co-Founding Partner, will moderate a panel at the ACECNJ Fall Conference to discuss what firms in the High-Risk to Know to Position their Marketing Leaders Need.

October 31
Michael Zetlin
Michael Zetlin, Co-Founding Partner, will moderate a panel at the SMPS to discuss Risky Business—What firms in the High-Risk to Know to Position their Marketing Leaders Need.

November 2
Michael Zetlin
Michael Zetlin, Co-Founding Partner, will join a panel at the New York Building Congress to moderate a spirited discussion on HOW TO FOLLOW BEST PRACTICES.

November 28
Sabrina L. Kanner
Sabrina L. Kanner, Special Counsel, will explain the importance of document follow best practices. Mr. Kanner’s article, Who’s to Blame? When Building Materials Fail, was featured in the June 2018 edition of Construction Draw.

November 29
Deena M. Crimaldi and Michael Zetlin
Deena M. Crimaldi and Michael Zetlin, Co-Founding Partner, will moderate a panel at the ACECNJ Fall Conference to discuss what firms in the High-Risk to Know to Position their Marketing Leaders Need.